

Dear Maureen,

Maureen Kavanaugh

To a swell girl with a wonderful personality, good looks,
and many other talents especially as a basketball guard. I don't know what our basketball team would do without you! (Keep up the good work!) I've really gotten to know you well these last two years and ~~now~~ now I don't see how I ever got along without you. You're such a wonderful friend to have!
Stay just as you are now with that neat sense of humor and the many other things I mentioned before. I wish you the best of luck in whatever you decide to do in the future. Love

lots of i.e. Luck Vick

P.S. Sorry for taking up so much room.

Maureen, a really wonderful girl whom I've always admired for her many fine talents. Morri I can't even begin to tell you how much fun we've had together and if I started writing about all the good times that we've had I'd be writing for weeks, so in order to leave a little room for other people, I'll simply thank you and hope that there'll be a lot more like them.

Best wishes and God bless you and guide
you in whatever you choose to do.

Good luck -

Love

Becky

Dedication

Mr. Hewson

Throughout our four years in high school Mr. Fewson has been both a fine teacher and friend and has shown not only knowledge but also sympathy, understanding, and guidance. Therefore we wish to express our appreciation and thanks by dedicating the 1965 BLACKHAWK to him.

When old age shall we youngsters waste
There will always be in future years
To come, a group to take our place.
Yet did we ever understand the joy of youth--
We never felt a calm so great
As when we learned the truth of living
Our lives with love and not with hate.
Yet did we ever understand the joy of youth--

The Student Council of L. H. S. was established in 1950 to maintain high standards of cooperation, loyalty, and fair play; to prepare to meet the problems of school and adult life; to set a high standard of citizenship; and to encourage and support all forms of student activities.

The Council governs all activities of the student body, and with the consent of the administration it has the power to develop policies, set standards, and to make and enforce any rules necessary for the improvement of school life. The Council consists of twelve members, four each from the Senior and Junior classes and two each from the Sophomore and Freshman classes plus one faculty sponsor.

One of the activities of the Council is to periodically sponsor dress-up days for the students and teachers. This group also works in conjunction with the Youth Council of the town of Lohrville to plan activities for the young people. This year these activities included the Sadie Hawkins Dance.

"THAT WONDERFUL YEAR!" for the yearbook staff this year began early and continued late to create a yearbook that would please the majority of the students and teachers in L. H. S.

This book presented a lot of problems and gave the staff immeasurable experience. Many times members of the staff could be seen working hard at school long after 3:25, or when a sudden blizzard left them stranded in Lohrville.

Reliving this year will bring many happy memories to the staff. We hope that our yearbook will help you, the students, recall a happy and successful year.

Pep Club

The Pep Club was established in 1955 in order to maintain high standards of school spirit, loyalty, and good sportsmanship. Persons may become members when they enter high school, and must support their teams, co-operate with other members, and work for the betterment of the club.

The activities of the Pep Club include an annual dance in the spring, decoration of store windows during Homecoming, game posters in the halls, and sponsoring the election of cheerleaders. This year the Pep Club had seventy members who helped support our winning football and basketball teams.

L - Club

The Letterman's Club was formed with the purpose of maintaining the standards of athletics in Lohrville High School. To belong to Letterman's Club an athlete must meet certain standards set by the coach of his sport and have high moral character, respect the rights of others, and be at least average scholastically. Members must set a good example and by their high standards, encourage others to participate.

L. H. S.'s Letterman's Club sponsors dances and maintains the check room at basketball games to earn money to purchase equipment for the athletic department, such as weights and isometric kits. They also sponsor noon hour intramural basketball and ping pong tournaments.

Tradition requires that new members be initiated every spring. This event is sanctioned by the administration and is followed by an annual picnic.

This year our marching band was led by Miss Pam Saucke. The four home football shows presented were "Just Plain Geometry", featuring Mr. Walter on the triangle, "Viva Vodvil", vaudeville show including corny jokes; "Campaign Capers", end of the campaign trail for Lohrville's own Senator Snort, and the annual homecoming show.

The flag twirlers (above) for 1964 were Nancy Phillips, Teresa Rossmanith, and Sherry Axtell. Early in the year new red and white outfits, which compliment the baton twirlers' uniforms, were purchased for them.

Twirlers (opposite), who were chosen in open competition as were the flag twirlers, were Karla Kinnick, Linda Long, Nancy Rasty, and Barb Kibby.

QUEEN LYNDIA

One of this year's activities was Carroll Band Day. Lynda Powers was elected by the band to represent Lohrville as Band Queen. The band also participated in the County Band Festival at Lytton. At Large Group Contest in Grand Junction the concert band received ratings of I, II, and II on the selections "Totem Pole", "Navy Hymn", and "Rhythm of the Winds".

This is a musical group.

One of the most active of all groups in the Vocal Music Department was the Mixed Chorus consisting of 45 members, under the direction of Mrs. Lilybell Gray. Early in the year the Mixed Chorus participated in the Calhoun County Festival in Lake City under the direction of the late Robert McCowan.

Chorus also took part in the Christmas Program and the Pre Contest Concert. The Chorus' big project was to sing "Manhattan Tower", a narrative musical written by Gordon Jenkins.

Large Group Contest was held at Grand Junction this year. For the ratings of II, III, and III, the chorus sang "Christ be Thine the Glory", and "One God".

Banner UP!

The Story of Five, six--pick up sticks!

One of the greatest memories we have of "That Wonderful Year" is Homecoming. Plans for the big event began far in advance of October 9, when each class picked a theme for their float, with the hope that they would win first prize of $5 awarded by the Commercial Club.

Homecoming week began Monday noon with the balloting for queen. The five candidates chosen from the senior class were: Sherry Axtell, Ann Boner, Barb Kavanaugh, Teresa Rossmanith, and Pam Saucke. Activities for the Pep Club continued throughout the week with the decorating of the windows. A new feature added this year by the Pep Club was two banners, both saying "Welcome to the Blackhawk Homecoming". These were placed across the highway and in the square downtown. Many nights and "long hours" were spent working on floats, preparing skits for the weekend activities, and planning decorations for the Homecoming dance.

"Listen, you guys!"

We're from Lohrville High School.

"Farmer John".

"Where's my mommy?"

Homecoming 1964

Actual Homecoming activities began Thursday night with the Bonfire. Since our regular cheerleaders were all candidates for queen, we elected four new cheerleaders: Jill Luhmann, Lynda Powers, Mary Ann Taiber, and Annette Champlin. Among the activities at the Bonfire were the Senior and Sophomore skits, pep talks by the queen candidates, coaches, and co-captains, Pat Cavanaugh and Butch Stephenson, and the cheerleading of the faculty. At the conclusion, the cheerleaders led a snake dance downtown.

On Friday the excitement rose as the seniors put the final touches on the dance decorations and sold the remaining homecoming pins and dance tickets. The parade which was led by the L.H.S. Marching Band began at 2:40. The Fourth Grade and the Special Education class won the prizes for the best grade school floats. During the pep meeting downtown, skits were presented by the Freshmen and the Juniors. (con't.)

"Troubles, Bob?"

On your mark.

It's a beginning.

Queen Teresa.

Queen's Court.

"Hey, this isn't my dad!"

"Oh, my feet!"

The 1964 football team was then introduced by Coach Shuey. Pep talks were given by Assistant Coach Turner and by "Shorty" Christensen who was the alumni speaker. Each of the queen candidates, who at this time were presented with corsages compliments of the Junior class, gave short talks to help boost the team and school spirit. Following the pep meeting the annual pancake supper was held with the Commercial Club serving over 1200 people.

At 8:00 P. M. Lorenz field was the scene of the Homecoming game with Battle Creek. During half-time the candidates for queen were presented through an aisle formed by the band. Teresa Rossmanith was crowned queen by Pat Cavanaugh and Butch Stephenson. Sharon Powers and Robbie Henak were the flower girl and the crown bearer. Although we suffered a disappointing loss to a highly rated team, the spirit of Homecoming was not lost.

"Wait till they taste this!"

Seniors'

Juniors'

Over 350 students, teachers, and alumni turned out for one of the most successful dances in the history of L.H.S. The dance was very lively due to the swinging sounds of the "Rockets".

However, Homecoming was not over. Saturday morning brought the clean-up crew of sleepy-eyed seniors to remove the remains of those wonderful decorations. Windows had to be washed, banners taken down, and floats disassembled.

After a week of anticipation, fun, hard work, and disappointment, things returned to normal in Lohrville and in the halls and the classrooms of Lohrville High School. Homecoming "'64" was gone, but never to be forgotten!!

Athletic Banquet

Another event of "That Wonderful Year" was the Athletic Banquet on April 3. There the Lohrville athletes received their letters and awards for the 1964-65 sports season. The Banquet began at 6:00 in the school cafeteria. This year the school cooks prepared the meal making it possible for the mothers to be seated with their husbands and athletes for the first time.

Activity began with Clifford Hawthorne's invocation, followed by the welcome to parents and athletes by Mrs. Doris Kerns. LeRoy Mapes gave the response. After Lynne Kail gave her declam reading, the meal began. When everyone was through filling themselves with delicious roast beef, they all settled back to listen to the guest speaker, Mr. Les Deaton from Simpson College, who was introduced by Pat Cavanaugh, master of ceremonies.

Following the speaker, Mr. Shuey presented the football awards; boys' basketball and baseball awards were presented by Mr. Weidner. Representing these teams Vernon Stephenson gave some comments about their seasons and gave thanks to the coaches. Mr. Turner then presented girls' basketball and softball awards. Jill Luhmann gave the remarks as representative of these sports. Mr. Fewson gave the cheerleaders their awards and a "well done" for their help in keeping school spirit at its highest.

The banquet closed with a farewell from the senior athletes by Loyd Brown, and response by Gabe Blaskovich, which was followed by the school song led by the cheerleaders. Here, for the seniors, were other gone but not forgotten events--the Athletic Banquet and their high school athletic careers.

The scene of A Midsummer Night's Dream

I was just saying to myself this morning, "Self . . ."

I'll have a pizza and root beer.

Banquet and Prom

Many couples had their pictures taken before this romantic, hand-painted scene.

On April 24, the lunch room of Lohrville High School was transformed into "A Midsummer Night's Dream". This rainy evening began with "A Wave of the Wand", the welcome by the Junior Class President, Kent Sandburg. A delicious dinner was then served by the Juniors' mothers. During the banquet we were entertained by "Forest Fantasy", the story of A Midsummer Night's Dream, a pantomime narrated by Phyllis Cronin. "After Glow", the response to the Welcome, was given by Jayne Powers. The Sophomores then gave a skit entitled "I Wish I Was, It Could Have Been, If Only I Could Dream Again", followed by a pantomime "Reflections In the Fountain". "You, Too, Have a Magic Wand", was the title of Mr. Hofmeister's talk.

The Prom followed the Banquet with Jimmy Smith and his band.

At midnight our fairy dream began to fade. Prom night was officially over, but for some the night was still young. Seniors and Juniors celebrated the last big social function of the year, or the last of a high school career. Sunrise closed one of the final chapters in our memory book, "That Wonderful Year."

Another favorite spot for pictures was the beautiful fountain.

The Senior mothers all received white carnation corsages which were purchased for them by the Senior class.

Some of the graduates had problems with their robes.

The first question each Senior asked after finally getting into his blue gown and mortarboard, and receiving his carnation, compliments of the Junior class, was, "How do I look?"

The escorts chosen by the Senior class were Joyce Somers and Rog Christensen.

Mori,

This sure makes me mad, I wanted to write a whole page and there wasn't a place to do so. But maybe I can summarize it into a few sentences.

Maureen, you don't know ^{how} glad I'm am to have a friend like you. You're always willing to help if something's wrong or needs doing. Stay the same sharp kid you are and you'll be a success.

"Good Luck"

Kris

Keep up with the good basket ball playing. You're terrific about it.

Maureen -
You a very sweet girl with a smile to match! With a pain such as that you sure to be a smash!! (in your future)
Lots of hugs,
Mary Ann

Dear Mori, (honey) Well, the year has really gone by! And what would I'd done without you? Good heavens, I probably wouldn't have made it. Really Maureen, you have you just about lived my life for me! You should me how to put together my dress when I had it upside down, you took me to Fort Dodge (if you wouldn't have, I would have never gone) And, babe, you're the best guard this school ever saw! And probably ever ~~will~~ will!

I've really had many, many good times and if I tried to put all them down, I don't think I could!

Well babe, you're one of the most wonderful, generous, person I've ever know!

I hope you like food! Love ya always, over read yours to write & talk. Suck Babe - Love ya always,
Jude.

Maureen,
Well, we only have one more year left. It doesn't seem like we should be seniors next year. Remember all the fun we had in history last year? I'm glad we got moved to the back. Be good and keep your neat personality.

Love,
Linda

Maureen,
Well, we only have two more years left. It just seems impossible. I do think they will be memorable ones with the plays, proms, and our rings (if we even get them). I want to wish you the best of luck in the future! I know you will make a go of it. Love Carolyn

Maureen,
Well, we're finally juniors! Pretty soon we'll be out and soon we'll have these things that happened during our days in school. But, I won't forget you or your neat personality! Love, Deborah

Maureen,
Don't ever forget your Junior + Sophomore years. Remember the prom and all the parties running around. We all had a lot of fun. Be good + keep your neat personality. Good luck in the future. Love ya,
Kathy Mills

Marie,

You are a sweet girl who I had the pleasure of knowing! Remember our basketball games and all the plays we pushed around! Remember the fire cracked in the car! Boy! I was scared! Keep your sweet smile, good looks and your "great" personality! Good luck!

Love,
Annette

Dear Morrie,
 Just think, one more year left and we'll be seniors. I can hardly wait but will also hate leaving all my friends behind. If I had your brains, talent, personality, height, looks and charm I would never have a worry in the world. I guess that all of us can't be that fortunate tho.
 In our next two years I basketball you'll be on first team all-conference while I'm sitting on the bench feeling sorry for myself.

As far as Holweiss Park is concerned I'll just as well forget it. I thought we were doomed!! I'll never forget the great time at your 8th grade birthday party. (even if I did have a sore back and could-not go bowling.)

Ben is wishing a neat kid the best of luck always and in everything you do.

Being manager wouldn't have been any fun without you. Keep getting better and you'll break your record in basketball. Keep your wonderful smile and you'll go a long ways.

Morrie,
 Two more seasons of basketball left and two more years of "fun with it" and class parties. I'll never forget all the fun we have had Morrie in school and out of school.
 Remember the 4th of July at Lake View. Best of luck Morrie.

Dear Maureen,

I believe I'll write on this opposite but adjacent to Janets so that the back will be covered like a book.

Do you have any inkling of what you mean to me? Well, I'll tell you! You're what keeps me going through a school day. You're a comforter, someone who understands, & a true-blue friend! Remember when my folks were in Indiana? Well, who's shoulder did I cry on?

I can only hope that I'm as good a friend to you as you are to me & that we can continue to enjoy(???) our last two years of high-school together.

We wasted too much time when we were little (Birthday parties etc.!) But maybe we can make up for it. Hope so!

Lotsa love & best of luck in the future —

As Always

As they said back in the Dark Ages, "I enjoy you very much." You're really NEATO. You're unlike anyone I know. You know, not queer, just unique. You always act so calm about everything. Everything you tell me I have to pry out of you. I really do envy you. You are so nice & quiet & I talk just too, too much. I hope you will remember as much as I do all the NEATO things we've done together. I just hate to talk in past tense. The things we're going to do are going to be you know, just better than anything. I don't know what we're going to do but it had better be great. At least we got our licenses. They do help a bit don't they. You always act so nice to everybody. I wish I could say the same about myself. (Note the change in ink) You know, you're just really too perfect. You have this infectious smile, sparkling personality, neat, sweet, petite. I know that I will always cherish you as one of my best friends, but you don't have to do the same. I know that by just being yourself, you will get along great. You're just really great & that's no lie!

Does this satisfy your lust for greatness?

Love,
Jind
